Original Omelet House Locations

And raise money for Operation Showers of Appreciation

Take the family to breakfast (or lunch) and

Support expecting military families at the same time!

The Omelet House is a Southern Nevada institution. Serving up 32 varieties of six-egg omelets, amongst other incredible homemade specialties like stuffed French toast, corned beef hash, and the best banana nut and pumpkin nut bread this side of the Hoover Dam, Omelet House never lets you leave hungry. In a way, it reminds you of a childhood visit to grandma's house: the portions are huge, the hospitality oozes country charm, and the coffee never runs dry. It just might become your weekly breakfast (or lunch) tradition and we think that's eggs-actly what you should do! We also serve homemade authentic Mexican food Monday - Friday from 10a-3pm! This menu is also AMAZING! Omelet House will donate 15% of sales generated from Tuesday July 19th-Tuesday July 26th to Operation Showers of Appreciation when you bring in this flyer. Make sure you present it to your waitress prior to ordering. Purchase a meal and a beverage* and help a great organization!
