

Operation Showers of Appreciation

The few...The Proud...The expecting!

Operation Showers of Appreciation is hosting a military baby shower in Riverside for local expecting active duty service women and spouses. The shower will be held on Saturday October 15, 2011 at 1pm at Malcolm Smith Motorsports in Riverside. Approximately 25 new and expecting mothers who have active duty partners or are active-duty servicewomen will participate in this large baby shower. All military branches of services are invited to participate. Mothers will be expecting from September 1st-December 31st 2011. The event will include gifts from the local community and many additional surprises.
